

Fox Residential Group Proudly Appoints Susan Rubin

The Licensed Associate Real Estate Broker and former real estate attorney brings 25 years of insight and expertise to the luxury firm.

As a Licensed Associate Real Estate Broker and former partner in a real estate law firm, Susan has represented buyers, sellers and developers in hundreds of transactions. She is well versed in every aspect of the real estate transaction process and brings over 25 years of professional real estate experience to Fox Residential. Susan guides buyers and sellers confidently through the sale or purchase of their new home while consistently exceeding their expectations. A highly skilled negotiator, she combines effective communication and in-depth knowledge of the current property values to achieve the best terms for her clients.

Susan understands the importance of providing excellent and dedicated customer service tailored to the unique needs and personality of each client. Having experienced the purchase and sales process first hand while transacting, developing and renovating her own properties, Susan's practical value-added approach has helped clients achieve their real estate goals.

Susan is on the board of Making Headway Foundation, a charity helping pediatric cancer patients and their families. A portion of her each sales commissions is given to support this great charity.
