

APRIL 9, 2018 - FOX RESIDENTIAL GROUP IN THE NEWS

Claudia Fields Joins Fox Residential Group

Luxury boutique brokerage Fox Residential Group welcomes Claudia Fields to its team. A native New Yorker, Ms. Fields will specialize in the sale and rental of apartments and townhouses throughout Manhattan and Brooklyn. In addition, she will be working directly with Fox Residential President Barbara Fox on client acquisition strategies.

“Claudia is an exceptional communicator with both empathy and business savvy,” points out Ms. Fox. “Her background gives her a perfect platform to help clients strike a balance between personal needs and investment goals.”

Prior to joining Fox, Ms. Fields was an education consultant and teacher. She has held teaching positions at Sloan Kettering Cancer Center Hospital Schools and has served in private practice as a learning consultant and education facilitator. She holds an M.S. in special education from The Bank Street College of Education and earned her bachelor’s degree from Long Island University.

About Fox Residential Group

Founded by Barbara Fox in 1989, Fox Residential Group is an exclusive boutique brokerage specializing in the sale and rental of upscale residential properties throughout Manhattan and Brooklyn. Headquartered in midtown on 60th Street just off Fifth Avenue, its sales and leasing staff include more than 45 experienced brokers and agents.

In addition to its preeminent resale, rental, and townhouse divisions, Fox Residential has a relocation division serving Fortune 500 companies, major law firms, investment banking houses, foreign governments, and global business organizations for more than two decades.