

NEW LISTINGS

Evelyn Katz and Karen Gorstayn at Fox Residential have just listed this three bedroom, 3.5 bath co-op at 60 East End Avenue for $3.595 million. Gut renovated, the chef's kitchen features granite countertops, custom cabinetry, top-of-the-line appliances, and a breakfast nook. There is an adjacent dining room and each bedroom has custom built-ins and closets plus panoramic views from the midtown Manhattan skyline to the East River. One of the bedrooms, currently a den, opens up into the living room with pocket doors. The master bedroom has an en-suite double-size marble bath. The building offers residents a fitness center, private storage, and discounted garage parking.
